

ARTICLES

"A" or "An" (indefinite articles): Use "a" or "an" when talking about something for the first time or something not specific.

"The" (definite article): Use "the" when you're talking about a specific thing that the listener or reader already knows about or can identify.

* Remember: If you can count it, you MUST use an article!

1. _____ spoon and _____ fork are on the dining table.
2. I want _____ kimbap.
3. There is _____ apple on the counter.
4. _____ teachers are preparing for their classes.
5. She is in _____ hurry.
6. I don't have _____ backup plan for that.
7. They are kind to _____ animals at the zoo.
8. A teacher is _____ important person in society.
9. He is _____ best athlete in the group.
10. We had _____ lot of fun while playing softball.
11. I'm out with _____ friend right now.
12. Amy, can you please pass _____ ketchup.
13. I bought _____ new car.
14. He is _____ doctor.
15. They have _____ dog and _____ cat.